Kauai Needs Educational Interpreters!

Kauai is Hawaii’s fourth largest island and is called the “Garden Isle.” It is the oldest and northernmost island in the Hawaiian chain and is about 20 minutes by air from Honolulu. Kauai has a population of 62,000 people. The average temperature ranges between 84 and 69 degrees which make it ideal for all things outdoors. While known for its impressive cliffs, canyons and rainforests, Kauai also has some of Hawaii’s most picturesque beaches. 50 miles of white sand surround Kauai. Can you imagine a better work environment?

Education Requirement:
The following minimum education requirements have been established within the parameters described by the Federal Government's No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB) of 2001.

1) 48 semester credits, baccalaureate level courses, from an accredited institution of higher education recognized by the Hawaii Department of Education. The forty-eight (48) credits may be from various program or academic subject areas. In addition, of the 48 credits from baccalaureate level courses, 3 must have been for math and 3 for English courses.*

AND (either concurrently or separately)

2) Successful completion of an Educational Interpreter training program, e.g., Associate of Science (A.S.) or Associate of Arts (A.A.) from an accredited institution recognized by the Hawaii Department of Education with specialization in Educational Interpreting; or equivalent.

Certification Requirement:
Applicants must possess one of the following certifications:
A. Educational Interpreter Performance Assessment (EIPA) level 3.5 or higher (preferred) or;
B. Hawaii Quality Assurance System (HQAS) Interpreter Classification 3 certificate (or higher)
C. National Interpreter Certification, e.g., Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, Inc. (RID).

Contact:
Kelly Knudsen
Kauai Department of Education
3060 Eiwa Street, Lihue, HI 96766
(808) 274-3502  kelly_knudsen@notes.k12.hi.us

You can apply online after March 15, 2012 at: https://www.governmentjobs.com/view_job.cfm?JobID=156375&hit_count=Yes&utm_source=Indeed&utm_medium=organic&utm_campaign=Indeed