Can You See What I’m Trying to Say?
An Introduction to ASL Idioms for Interpreters

I ASL KISS-FIST! Do you? ASL idioms can be a challenge to translate into English words. Or do they just WHOOSH over your head altogether? Well, no longer. This course will teach you how to distinguish ASL idioms from ASL signs. Learn to put into English the concepts of ASL idioms, and learn the ASL interpretation of English idioms. With fun filled activities on learning new ASL phrases and their meanings, you can be sure to become CHAMP at ASL. For those of you who haven’t heard of ASL idioms… well, come and learn how fun they are! Otherwise, TRAIN-GO-SORRY!

Location: The Deaf Center: Lecture Hall
5709 South 1500 West
Taylorsville, UT 84123
Saturday, April 26, 2014: 9:00am-12:00pm
3 CEH’s, 3 CEU’s (available through PINRA forms)

Price:
Student Members/Uncertified Members: $5*
Certified Members: $25*
*Please note: UTRID membership is required to attend. Membership fee is $30/year. Please have your certification card ready to show at the door.
CASH OR CHECK ONLY. DEBIT CARDS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED AT THE DOOR!!!

Content Level:
Although all interpreters are welcome, this workshop will be geared to accommodate the needs of uncertified or recently certified interpreting students.

Presenter Bio:
Sam Harris is an account manager at GoREACT. (www.goreact.com) Deaf himself, Sam can communicate natively with the many ASL professionals who are using or evaluating GoREACT. He brings experience from prior marketing and account positions at Sorenson Communications and InterWest Interpreting. He is studying Business and Marketing at the University of Phoenix. Deaf since age 2, he has immersed himself into the world of ASL and never resurfaced. Like many other Deaf people, he enjoys teaching people new things. He skis, reads, and writes made-up stories in his free time.

For registration, questions, cancelation policy, etc., please contact Amie Santiago at student.utrid@gmail.com

Workshop will be presented in American Sign Language.
UTRID is an approved RID CMP Sponsor for Continuing Education Activities.
This professional studies program is offered for 3.0 CEH’s/0.3 CEU’s at the little/none Content Knowledge Level.